

Justice Survey

NAME: _____

AGE: _____

1. A man commits murder and is caught 30 years later. He is brought before a judge and apologizes profusely for his actions. Should the judge let the man go because he is sorry for what he has done?
Yes      No
2. This same gentleman then proceeds to argue that he has done many good things and should not be punished for the one bad thing he has done. Should this man be set free for his good deeds?
Yes      No
3. He then states that because the murder happened so long ago, he should be let go. Should the judge let him go because the law had been broken a long time ago?
Yes      No

Now I am going to ask a couple of more personal questions to understand more about your answers to the previous questions.

4. What book or teaching do you use as a guide for your life?
Bible   Koran   Mormon
J.W   Oprah   Other: _____
5. What happens to someone after they die?
Heaven/Hell   Reincarnation   Nothing
Other: _____
6. Do you consider yourself to be a good person?
Yes      No

Let's take a quiz to see if you are right.

7. Have you: (Exodus 20:3-17)
Lied?
Stolen?
Looked with lust?
Used God's name in vain?
Coveted?
Dishonored your parents?
Hated someone (murder)
Loved anything else more than God?
Made a god in your mind that was different from the God of the Bible
Not taken a day of rest to worship the God who created you?

By your own admission you are a...(see above) And that is only _____ of the 10 commandments!

8. On the day of judgment (Hebrews 9:27), if God judges you by the 10 commandments, do you think you will be innocent or guilty? Why?
Innocent      Guilty
9. Would you go to heaven or hell? Why?
Heaven      Hell

If God were to judge you according to the 10 commandments you would go to hell. (Revelation 21:8; 1 Corinthians 6:9)

10. Does that concern you?
Yes      No

It should concern you, but there's good news! 2,000 years ago Jesus Christ came to earth, lived a sinless life, and died on the cross to pay for your sins. A legal transaction was made. (Romans 6:23)

Jesus paid the fine for you but you have to accept this gift by doing two things: Repent (Luke 13:5; Acts 3:19) and Trust in Jesus for salvation (Romans 10:9, John 3:16).

Repent means to be sorry for the sins you have committed and to turn away from them. Trusting in Jesus means that we are confident that He will save us from an eternity in hell like a passenger on an airplane that trusts in a parachute.

11. Does this make sense to you?
Yes      No
12. Do you believe what I have said to be true?
Yes      No
13. When are you going to get right with God? When are you going to repent and put your trust in Jesus?
Now (Pray)      Later (Think about it)
14. Do you have a Bible? (Encourage to read it and to pray daily)

Thanks for talking with me!